g evening time.

I am pretty busy myself at present as we have been short handed & so I have delayed replying to your letter.
We expect to come to Wilmington Road this finish week
or beginning.

If you can manage during the afternoon I shall be glad to hear from you.

With kindest regards

Believe me to be

Yours sincerely

Dear Rev. Robert:

I wanted you while I was down
visit you but I sincerely for the sympathy will, as much you to Rudy explain.
If will be quite soon enough when you boy & gave us the last Sacrament of which we partook the Tuesday before Michaelmas left for England.

I thought of, as the necessities, we knew that would be done with the legacy it would be some satisfaction for us but then it was known.

Mr. & Mrs Wallace are still away but I shall probably see them shortly when I shall tell them what we have done.

Our time till now has been much occupied during the visit of His Royal Highness. We hope & think the Convocation & Law Lectures may be over in time for us to return to Dublin before the Garden Party at Government House as if the weather is fine we shall have favourable opportunities returning from Durham engagements to go with the Warden of the Universities which we would be pleased to attend on our return. We have already provided for it, as we will be at Port Arthur a Tuesday like about it which I think is how with you & Port Arthur.

Now the visit will likely take.

We have left the Dupuys. Enjoyed all Princes entertaining with the Universities the Rev. Mr. Wallace was formerly pastor at Glen St. Mary, also is, I think, well known to you. My husband & I are very deeply attached to Mr. Wallace. We baptized our dear

Dear Sir:

On the 20th of March, 1917,
was the Board Continuation Scholarship

a yearly gift. at. the Anniversary of Francis as memory of our Blessed Son.

If crime we cannot kill about. the future may hold for us & it. may happen that. any husband & myself may have to spend all or part of us have suffering & loss, but; as the meantime, we should like to feel that. if we were to pass on while still comparatively young, the sum of education would benefit. & the memory of our Blessed Son would be kept sacred among those of his own kind.

Sorrowfully Yours
